

Meeting Minutes from November 9th at Passion House.

1. Introductions. Opportunities are endless for referrals, new business, collaboration, resource sharing, and much more. Get to know your neighbor in the incubator for a safer work space and for new growths in your business! The more we know of one another and work for each other's best, the better we all get!
2. Meeting Format. At the next meeting we will implement a meeting style to address current thoughts, problems, and good ideas in our business.

Each member will take a few sticky notes and write current business thoughts they would like to be discussed at the meeting, as well as one "good nugget of thought." This is meant to give one another ideas that are practical, encouraging, new and resourceful!

After all notes are submitted we will vote on the topics to discuss during the meeting that day and each topic will be given time for discussion. All "good nuggets" will be shared for the whole group.

We have multiple channel:

1. Promotions: please share your company's promotions here! If they expire, please keep up to date.
 2. Security: to express concerns, alerts, strategies, and open communication about our safety and security at ICNC.
 3. Events: share your events, invitations, and applicable information for the group here.
 4. Resources: Hopefully one of the best pieces of being a part of the group. Sharing ideas, resources, and talents between one another. Do you have extra boxes, used cotton rags, scrap metal, or other things that could be given to someone in the incubator? Could we group together and purchase case packs of dollies at a lower price? What does your business need, how could we help one another? Do you have a great marketing strategy you want to share?
- Random: For all things random and anything not mentioned above. Need someone to eat lunch with? Ordering a large cake and need someone to share it with? Headed down to Rhine Hall for a drink and want to connect? Share it here!
